SOCIAL EVENING WITH KEN WATERS

Many thanks to all those who attended the Club's Social Evening in November, featuring entertainment by well-known local singer Ken Waters.

The Officers and Committee are extremely grateful to Ken, who generously gave his services free of charge.

This was the first such venture that the Club has organised and is part of our on-going fundraising which will enable us to further improve the Club's facilities.

The evening was well-supported by around 70 members and friends, raising a total of £283.00.

LEAGUE TEAMS

The Club will continue to run teams in five local leagues for the 2015 season and it would be helpful if members would let us know their availability as soon as possible by contacting any club officer or captain.

GREEN MAINTENANCE

The regular close season maintenance work has been carried out on the green and the Committee would like to thank one of our Vice-Presidents, Mr. Bernard O'Malley for his generous help in financing this work.
